Dedication—Dad, When you told me that Claire de Lune was Mom’s favorite piece of piano music, it touched something deep within me. This choreography is created with that love, memory, and connection in my heart every step of the way.

Through the music, I hope to honor her beauty, grace and the love you both shared. And through this dance, I want to honor you too—for carrying her memory so gently and for sharing this piece of her with me.

Dad, this is for you.

FINALE

Artistic Directors of White Marsh Ballet Academy Dance Company

Sandra Harris

Sandra Harris and Shari Bickel were previously soloists with the Ballet Theater of Annapolis from 1991 until 1999. Sandra and Shari went on to join the professional contemporary dance company, "TMC" for their 2000 season. They attended Baltimore School for the Arts and Towson State University.

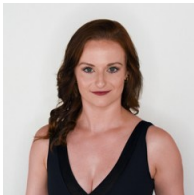

Both Sandra and Shari were trained in the Russian method of classical ballet. The travelled to Russia to train under the direction of Nikita Dolgushin, founder of the Leningrad Conservatory for music and dance with Towson University's student exchange program.

Shari Bickel

Sandra and Shari have trained, choreographed, and performed a variety of dance disciplines through the state of Maryland. These include Ballet Theater of Annapolis "The School", County Ballet, Ballet Royale Academy, The Talent Machine, Part II Dance Company, Susan Ina's Dance Studio, Experimental Dance Concepts and Harford Dance Theatre. Sandra and Shari have also formed a collaboration with senior members of WMBA and formed the contemporary Christian dance company, "Unspoken Grace".

Assistant Director

Lindsey Bell began her training at White Marsh Ballet Academy under the instruction of Sandra Harris and Shari Bickel in 1999. Lindsey is currently a principal dancer with the Ballet Theatre of Maryland. Lindsey joined BTM in 2015 upon graduation from the University of Oklahoma where she earned a B.F.A. in Ballet Performance. During her time at OU, Lindsey was mentored by Mary Margaret Holt, Jeremy Lindberg, Clara Cravey, Steve Brule, and Ilya Kozadayev. While with BTM, she has performed as Swanhilda in Coppelia, Myrtha in Giselle, the Diamond Fairy in Sleeping Beauty, as the Snow Queen and Spanish leads in The Nutcracker, Hippolyta in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Gerda in the Snow Queen ballet and the Evil Queen Regina in Snow White. In 2020, Lindsey accepted the position of Assistant Director at WMBA, and has been expanding her dance foundation to include overall business operations. Lindsey is also a certified Comprehensive Pilates instructor.

Teacher Coordinator

Katie Hauf began dance at the age of three at White Marsh Rec. Council. There she performed lead roles in ballets such as Beauty and the Beast, Cinderella, The Nutcracker, The Wizard of Oz, and Giselle. Katie moved to White Marsh Ballet Academy when they opened their doors in the fall of 1997. She was a Senior Dance Member and Rehearsal Assistant with the dance company in residence, The Baltimore Dance Ensemble, from 1998-2003. Her repertoire with BDE includes, Swan Lake, Seasons, and Snow Queen and Dew Drop from The Nutcracker to name a few. Katie began teaching for WMBA in 2000. She has also guest choreographed Cirque for both BDE and WMBA Dance Company. Katie attended Goucher College where she obtained her bachelor's degree in Dance and Elementary Education in 2003. As a Senior Teacher for WMBA, Katie has been promoted to Teacher Coordinator.

Instructors

Lauren Amrhein began training at Mid-Atlantic Center for Performing Arts before coming to White Marsh Ballet Academy in 2006. While at WMBA, Lauren performed in the dance company in roles such as the Sugar Plum Fairy in the Nutcracker and Beauty in Beauty and the Beast. Lauren attended the University of Maryland and graduated in 2016 with a B.S. in Chemical Engineering and graduated in 2017 with a M.S. in Chemical Engineering. Now, Lauren works as an Evaluator at the Army Evaluation Center when she is not teaching. Lauren continues to perform as a guest artist in WMBA Dance Company performances. Lauren also performs locally with Charm City Ballet. Lauren has been teaching at WMBA since 2011.

Armeara Blackwell is a trained hip hop dancer, whose dance career started about 10-11 years ago. As a child, she was on the dance ministry at her church. Armeara officially began her dance training at B.Funk Dance Company under the direction of Becky Funk. Between 2013-2014 Armeara was accepted on B.Funk's competition crew. It was during this time that Armeara began to find her love for dance and performing. After leaving B.Funk in 2014, Armeara stepped out of her comfort zone and began to take ballet and modern classes for a year. She trained in these styles with Morton Street dance center under the direction of Donna Jacobs. In 2015, Armeara joined Future Shock, a non-profit, hip hop based dance company. Here she trained in various styles of hip hop and also found her love as a freestyler. She danced with Future Shock for 2 years then took a break for a season. Armeara danced with her high school's dance company before graduating in 2018. After graduating high school, Armeara went back to dance with Future Shock and finished her last 2 seasons as a youth dancer with the company. While on Future Shock, Armeara performed in various places such as San Diego, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, and Chicago. In May of 2020, Armeara graduated from the Community College of Baltimore County with her AFA Degree in dance. As a dance major at CCBC, Armeara began as well as continued to train in various styles of dance such as ballet, modern, jazz, and tap. She was also selected to be a part of the CCBC dance company throughout her 2 years. In the near future, Armeara hopes to build a dance brand that creates concept videos based on current events happening in the world. She hopes that her concept videos will bring awareness and encouragement.

Magen Hauf is a current student at Concordia Preparatory School. She is studying in the Health Sciences Pathway. Magen begun studying dance at White Marsh Ballet Academy in 2012, and has been a member of the WMBA Dance Company since 2017. She has performed the following lead roles with the company: Snow Queen, Dew Drop Fairy, Rat Queen, Spanish, and Lead Doll in Nutcracker, Jenny Lind in The Greatest Showman, the old lady/Evil Queen in Snow White, and Maleficent in Fractured Fairy Tales.

Nicole Ford began her training at the age of 5 and has studied at White Marsh Ballet Academy for the majority of her training. She was a member of the White Marsh Ballet Academy Dance Company and has been cast in roles such as Russian lead, Arabian lead, Paquita lead, and the Sugar Plum Fairy. For 3 years, she has performed as a member of Unspoken Grace, a Christian Dance Company. Nicole has performed throughout the local community. She is a graduate from the prestigious, George Washington Carver Center for Arts and Technology, Dance program. Nicole was a trainee with Ballet Theatre of Maryland Dance Company during it's 2021-2022 season. Nicole also served as Rehearsal Assistant for many WMBA Company Productions.

Nora Lanahan began her dance training at various local dance studios in the Maryland area including Back Stage Dance Studio. Nora attended Goucher College and was a founding member of the Goucher College Dance team and received a B.A. in Psychology in 1999. She continued her education and received a B.S.N. from Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing in 2002. Mrs. Lanahan was a senior Company member and rehearsal assistant for Baltimore Dance Ensemble from 1998-2001. Nora has dance professionally with Kinetics Dance Theatre. She is a founding member of Unspoken Grace, a Christian Dance Company. In addition to being a dance instructor for WMBA since its inception she is also a R.N. and a homemaker.

Katlin Magrunther began her dance training at a recreational dance facility at a young age, there she trained in ballet, tap, jazz, modern, and pointe. Katlin then attended The Community College of Baltimore County (CCBC) performing with their dance company in Spring 2017 and Fall 2018. She earned her Associates degree in dance from CCBC in 2018, from there she studied at University of Maryland Baltimore County (UMBC) and earned her Bachelors of Arts in Dance and a K-12 dance education certificate in Spring 2020. For her efforts and success Katlin was awarded the UMBC Summer Dance Research Scholarship in 2018 and the UMBC Teacher Education Scholarship in 2018 and 2019. Katlin is experienced in ballet, jazz, modern, and contemporary dance forms. She was selected as an intern for the Paul Taylor American Modern Dance Summer Intensive—Baltimore, Md 2019 and has taught for numerous studios in the Baltimore area. Katlin is currently a dance teacher in the BCPS, and is excited to begin her journey with White Marsh Ballet Academy!

Julia McDonough is happy to be back at WMBA after a 15 year break. She has been teaching around Maryland since 2001. Julia holds a BFA in dance from The Boston Conservatory, where she performed works by many choreographers but most notably, Martha Graham and Paul Taylor. She was a part of the first student cast allowed to perform Martha Graham's Appalachian Spring. Julia has performed professionally with several company in the Maryland area. On a personal note, Julia lives in Howard County with her husband, three daughters, mother-in-law and her cat, Mason.

Rachel Terry began her training at the Mid-Atlantic Center for Performing Arts before coming to White Marsh Ballet Academy in 2006. While at WMBA, Rachel performed in the dance company in roles such as the Snow Queen and Dew Drop Fairy in The Nutcracker and the Temptress in The Choice. Rachel attended Penn State University where she was a member of Volé, Penn State's Ballet Club, from 2016 to 2020.

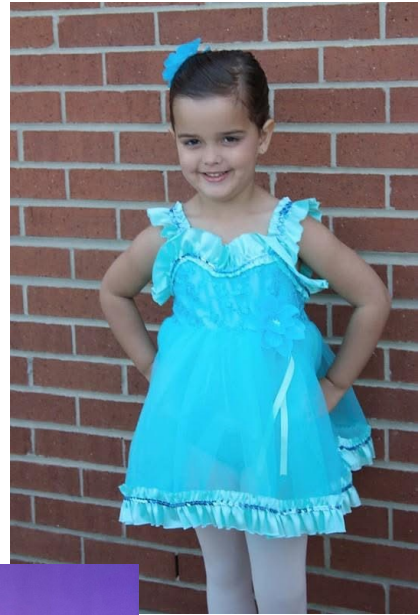

Kaitlyn Winner began dancing at the age of 4 and has been performing with WMBA since 2003. She was a member of The Baltimore Dance Ensemble and the White Marsh Ballet Academy Dance Company from 2004-2015. As a senior Company member, Kaitlyn performed as Clara (2011, 2012), Dew Drop Fairy, and Sugar Plum Fairy in Nutcracker, Snow White in Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, and the lead character in WMBA's original production of Fairy Tale to Fairy Tale (2013 and 2014). As a member of the TU Dance Company, Kaitlyn performed excerpts from ballets including Coppelia, Napoli, and La Bayadere, as well as original works by Runqiao Du, Ken Skrzysz, and Malcolm Shute. She is currently a choreographer, instructor, and guest performer with WMBA. Kaitlyn holds a BS Degree in Psychology from Towson University and is MS Degree in Clinical Professional Counseling Psychology from Loyola University Maryland. She is a Licensed Graduate Professional Counselor and is currently working at Loyola University Maryland as the Assistant Director of Career Readiness within their Career Center.

WMBA 2026 Seniors—ANNA DAVIS

Anna, We are so happy and blessed to have had your joyous and always pleasant spirit dancing with WMBA all these years. You have always been such an amazing student and to watch you perform has been beyond joyful! Even though you were not around as much these past few years, you have always managed to keep us in your life and watching you grow has been such an amazing adventure. You always had a huge smile and positive things to say, even when your day may not been going the way you wanted. You always found the good in something. WMBA will always be home, and it is our desire that you always find a place for dance in your life. It has been there for your entire childhood and has grown up along with you in all that you have accomplished. We are excited to see you continue to grow and even if it's from afar. You should know that we are always watching and always proud to call you our own.

All of love, Ms. Shari & Ms. Sandy

Anna has been dancing with WMBA for 10 years

Anna plans to join the Pom team at Salisbury University next year where she will be studying nursing with a minor in Spanish.

WMBA 2026 Seniors—JULIA LAUT

Julia, You have been a part of WMBA for so many years and watching you grow up into the amazing person you have become has been a blessing to all your teachers at the academy. As a dancer, you never disappoint, and you light up the stage with your energetic dynamic personality. We have gone through so many life events together and watching you rise and end up above every challenge that has been thrown your way has made the relationship grow to such a very special and intimate place. Thank you for not only sharing your dancing but also your deepest innermost thoughts and feelings. We are excited to see where the next journey takes you and we hope that dance will always be a special part of your life and you realize as you look back on these days that they have shaped you into the person you have become. We love you more than words can say and you will always come back to see us and continue to share all the events in your life with us!

All of love, Ms. Shari & Ms. Sandy

Julia has been with WMBA since 2017.

Julia will be attending York College after graduation

We are so proud of you, Emery! ♥
KEEP DREAMING, KEEP DANCING, KEEP BEING YOU.

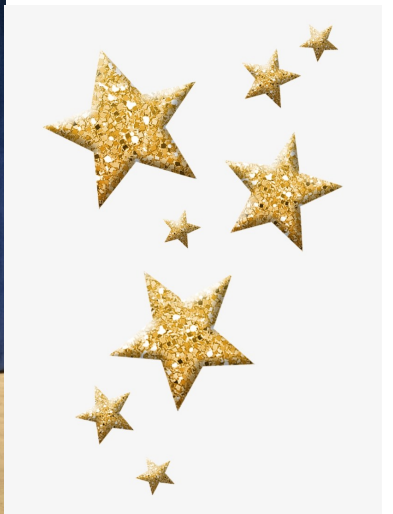

— LOVE ALWAYS, —
MOM, DAD & YOUR BIGGEST FANS

Julia,

It has been a joy watching you dance on stage for the past 15 years. We've watched you perform over 115 dances across 47 shows. You have sacrificed your time and energy for dance. You were so busy that even your own labrum couldn't keep up with you. Your stage presence is second to none with your beautiful smile and fluid movements. Watching you grow into the dancer and person you are today has been such a gift, and we couldn't be prouder of you. Good luck at York College.

Love, Mom, Dad, Bennett, Hudson and Peyton

Great dancers are not great because of their technique; they are great because of their passion.

Mallorie, so proud of the dancer you are and your passion comes through each step. Dance your heart out.

Love, Mom, Dad, Leela, Wesley, Mom Mom, & Kahuna

My Sweet Girl,

Watching you dance fills my heart with so much pride and joy. At only six years old, you already shine so brightly with your confidence, beauty, and sweet spirit.

Keep dancing. Keep smiling and always remember you are loved.

We are so proud of you today and always.

Love,

Mommy and Daddy

Isabelle,

Congratulations on your very first dance
recital! You will always be our shining star! ✨
We are so proud of you and love you to the moon and beyond!

Love always,
Mommy and Daddy

LET'S
Dance

Chelsey,

We are so proud of the beautiful girl you are becoming on the inside and out. You have such a kind heart and are always thinking of others. Since you were three years old, you have had a love for dancing. So we put you in ballet classes at White Marsh Ballet Academy and you have been there ever since. Watching you grow your skills in dancing and your dedication to the art has been inspiring.

Keep up the hard work and always have fun!

Love,

Dad, Mom & Emma

Eleanor Lakota-Jean Reyes,

Mom, Dad and the rest of the family are so incredibly proud of you. You have shown that having autism will never hold you back. Thank you for trying something new, staying consistent, and having so much fun with dance.

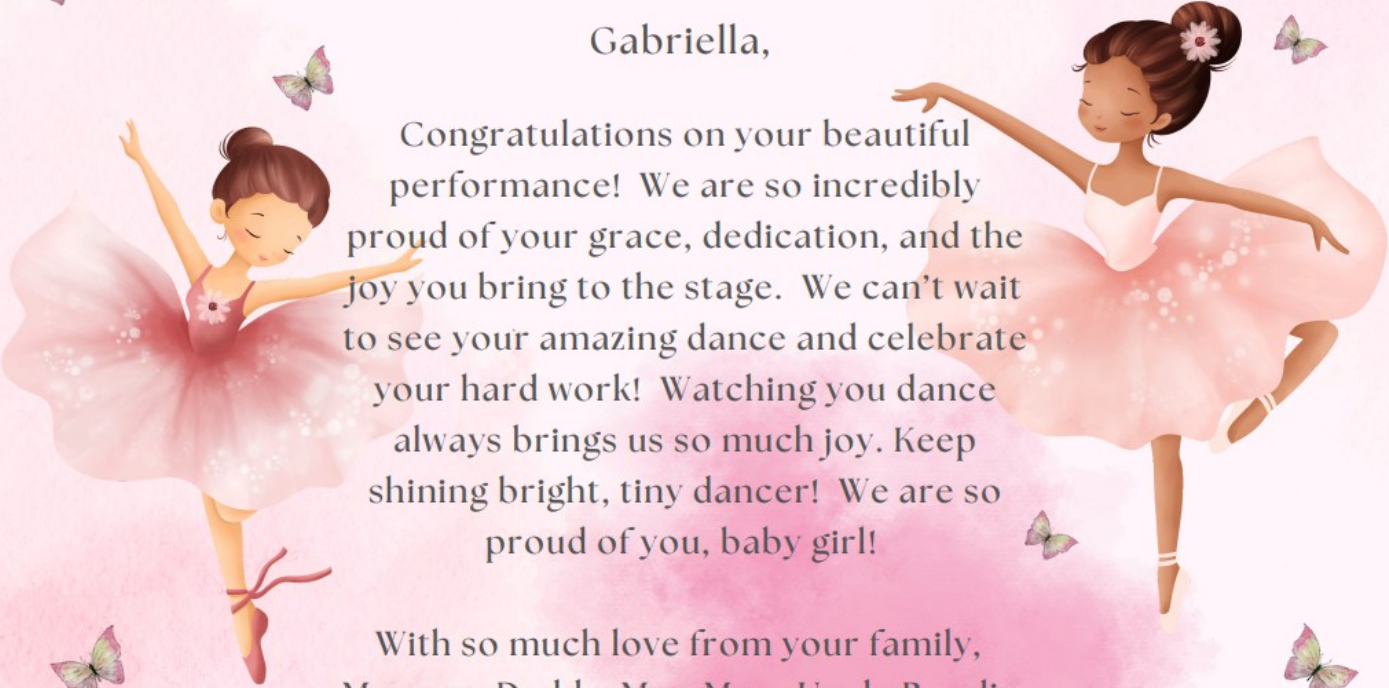

Eleanor, you were born a star. With the support and guidance of the White Marsh Ballet Academy you light is shining brighter. Great job.

We love you, Eleanor,

Gabriella,

Congratulations on your beautiful performance! We are so incredibly proud of your grace, dedication, and the joy you bring to the stage. We can't wait to see your amazing dance and celebrate your hard work! Watching you dance always brings us so much joy. Keep shining bright, tiny dancer! We are so proud of you, baby girl!

With so much love from your family,
Mommy, Daddy, Mee-Maw, Uncle Boogie,
Gee-Gee, and Bubby

White Marsh Ballet Academy opened it's doors during the summer of 1997 with a small camp consisting of only 20 students. Since that time, we have grown to more than 200 students and have continued with our performing company in residence—White Marsh Ballet Academy Dance Company. WMBA offers dance education in ballet, pointe, modern, jazz, tap and hip hop. WMBA is owned by professional dancers and includes a staff that promotes enthusiasm and care for students first. Individual attention with an emphasis on dance technique allows instructors to bring out the best in each student, promoting self-confidence and enjoyment. The mission statement of WMBA is to instill the passion of dance as an art form within each student. The goal of the teachers is to inform and inspire, creating thinking dancers preparing them for careers in the field of dance as well as life. WMBA is a family oriented school focused on communication , respect and self-motivation.

WHITE MARSH BALLET ACADEMY DANCE COMPANY was created to give students the opportunity to perform in a professional working atmosphere. Dancers range in age from 8 to adult and are accepted into the company by audition. For more information, please call the studio. The company holds two full-length performances per year and participates in a variety of community activities.
